1/4
Shatamana

01. (1x)

01. Ancient, Archaic Punch Marked Coinage, Attributed to Gandhara Janapada, Silver 2 Shana or 1/4 Shatamana, 2.90 gms, 14.37x15.39 mm, “Local Swat Valley” type, Single 5 armed symbol on obverse, a Very Rare denomination as compared to the larger Bent Bar, Five armed symbol instead of the usual six armed symbol. This type too is found only in the Swat valley. It is argued that the denomination and weights of this type are somewhat different and perhaps could be attributed to Kamboja Janapada?, punch with 5 arms instead of the regular issue of Gandhara, which always has 6 arms (Rajgor-561 to 567), said to be from a small hoard discovered about 12 years ago, An alternative attribution is that this is not Kamboja Janapada, and is instead a rare variety of Gandhara with a 5-armed symbol instead of 6-armed (Rajgor-561 to 567), The ancient Kingdom of Gandhara was one of the original sixteen Mahajanapadas (“Great Kingdoms”) mentioned in ancient Buddhist texts like the Anguttara Nikaya. Gandhara, centered around the important ancient cities of Purushapura (modern Peshawar). Takshashila or Taxila, and Pushkalavati (the capital of the Kingdom) and covering the regions of northern Pakistan and eastern Afghanistan, though on occasions it extended as far as Kashmir, See Fishman, JONS 202, Fig. 5, Uniface, Unlisted, very fine, very rare. 01. Deyell has recorded three specimens of this king in the 4 ½ Masha weight standard, Virasimha was the earliest known ruler of the Tomara dynasty of Gwalior. His ascent to power is generally dated to the latter half of the 14th century, during which period Gwalior is believed to have been granted to him by the later Tughlaq Sultans of Delhi, Virasimharama (also known as Virasimha or Virasimhadeva), a medieval Rajput ruler associated with the Kachchhapaghata dynasty of Central India, The attribution of this coin to Virasimha remains tentative; however, its style corresponds closely with the final phase of the North Indian "Lakshmi"-type gold coinage, distinguished by the replacement of the goddess Lakshmi with her male counterpart, Kubera, the deity of wealth, Reference # Deyell, Lakshmi-Bearer of Riches, 17a, pg. 153, very fine, exceedingly rare.

Note :

1) A similar specimen hammered at CNG India Auction on 4 January 2026 for INR 5,10,000 (excluding buyer's premium). The piece was described as an exceedingly rare gold ½ dinar of Virasimha (c. 1350–1400 AD), depicting Kubera seated cross-legged, regarded as the male counterpart to Lakshmi in the late North Indian "Lakshmi-type" coinage tradition.

2) A further comparable example, described as featuring the deity Kubera seated cross-legged, realized USD 4,000 (excluding buyer's premium) at Stephen Album Rare Coins (SARC) during their 14–17 May 2026 auction, reaffirming the growing international demand and strong market appreciation for this exceptionally rare Tomara gold issue.

Broome 272 Dv(v)d. Izmirlier 465 var. (with stars on the obverse). A rare variety without stars on the obverse, The sun face and lion on this coin type, which are sometimes shown together with other celestial bodies, probably represent the constellation of Leo. A different - but not necessarily contradicting - theory interprets the sun face as standing for the famous Georgian princess Tamar, the beloved wife of Kay Khusraw II, while the lion symbolizes the Sultan. This interpretation is based on Bar Hebraeus (1226-1286), a bishop of the Syriac Orthodox Church, who noted that Kay Khusraw was so much in love with Tamar that he expressed the wish to place an image of her on his dirhams, Album # 1216.1, pierced, fine to very fine, rare. 193. 274. Mughal, Nepal Issue, Silver Mohur, 5.51 gms, 24.99 mm, imitating design of Mughal rupees Jahangir, with name of Pratapmalla of Nepal (1641-1674 AD), NS 775, 1655 AD, trishul in center on rev, During the reign of Pratap Malla, some coins from Nepal imitated Jahangir's silver rupees. They copied Jahangir's design, calligraphy, and silver standard. The primary difference was Pratap Malla's name replacing Jahangir's and the date reflecting the Nepal Samvat or local era, instead of the Hijri year. This imitation aimed to gain prestige, trust in trade, and numismatic legitimacy, reflecting Mughal influence without political subordination. These coins are rare and significant examples of cross-cultural influence in South Asian numismatics, similar to Zeno # 219378, KM # 164, extremely fine, very rare.

Khalsa Symbol Khalsa founded on March 30, 1699 AD (= 29 Ramadan AH 1110)

313. (2x)

313. Mughal, Aurangzeb (AH 1068-1118, 1658-1707 AD), Silver Rupee, 11.31 gms, 21.89 mm, Dar al-Sultanat Lahore Mint (partially visible at top on rev), and dated AH 1110 (AD 1698–99), RY 42, 'Badar-e-munir' Couplet, combines standard imperial design with an unusual Sikh element. It bears Aurangzeb's name, regnal year (42), and the mint title "Dar al-Sultanat." Its distinctive feature is the inclusion of the khanda—the Sikh emblem of a double-edged sword within a chakram and flanked by two swords—subtly placed within the inscription at 7 o'clock on the reverse. This issue is extremely rare and appears limited to this single year. It was minted during a period of intense conflict in Punjab between the Mughal Empire and Guru Gobind Singh, the 10th Sikh Guru, who founded the "Khalsa" on March 30, 1699 AD (= 29 Ramadan AH 1110). The appearance of the khanda on an official Mughal coin, prior to any Sikh state authority, is highly unusual and not fully understood. It likely reflects a local and possibly unofficial arrangement between Sikh groups in Lahore and mint officials. The coin thus represents a unique and historically significant overlap of Mughal authority and emerging Sikh identity, KM # 300.53 var, Saran Singh, "The First Coins of the Sikhs," ONS Newsletter 144 (Spring 1995), p. 8 (for a later Mughal issue with the symbol), similar to Zeno # 177324, extremely fine, very rare.

376. Independent Kingdoms, Sind, Amirs of Khairpur, Silver Rupee, 11.06 gms, 33.42 mm, Bhakkar Mint (fully visible at top on rev), Mir Sohrab Khan Talpur was a Baloch ruler and the founder of the Khairpur State in Sindh, ruling from approximately 1783 to 1830 AD. During his reign, silver rupees were struck at the Bhakkar Mint in the name of Mahmud Shah Durrani (AH 1216-1233, 1801-1818 AD), reflecting the continued nominal authority of the Durrani Empire over the region despite the Talpurs exercising independent local power. This particular silver rupee, dated before AH 1245/AD 1829 with the date off the flan, bears the Bhakkar mint name fully visible on the reverse and represents the distinctive early 19th-century coinage of Sindh under Talpur rule. Such issues are historically significant for their regional style, political symbolism, and association with the emergence of the Khairpur State under Mir Sohrab Khan Talpur. The unusually large flan diameter of 33.42 mm further suggests the possibility that the coin may have been struck over a pre-existing host coin, a practice not uncommon in regional mints of the period where older or foreign silver coins were occasionally restruck for local circulation, large flan, Zeno # 3941, very fine, rare.

626. Mk Tirthankar Bhagwan Shri Shankeshwar Parshwanath, Brass Token, 63.44 gms, 57.96 mm, It is a Sanskrit mantra dedicated to Bhagwan Parswanath. Kindly note that this is not a regular or traditionally chanted mantra; rather, it is a custom-composed shloka specially created for this token occasion, The reverse Reads : Kamathe Dharnendracha svochitam karma kurvati, Prabhustulya manosthiti Parshvanathay shriyestu va ! The stuti of Parshvanath teaches equanimity — remaining calm and balanced in both praise and suffering. Bhagwan Parshvanath neither reacted to Kamath's harm nor became attached to Dharnendra's help, as both acted according to their karmas, In daily life, we often lose peace over small situations, becoming controlled by external events. Through Samayik, meditation, mindfulness, and awareness of our thoughts and actions, we learn to respond instead of react. Practicing equanimity leads to inner peace, stability, and true joy from within, very fine, scarce.

Conditions of Sale

Please read these Terms of Use ("Terms", "Terms of Use") carefully before using the <http://virasatauctions.com> website (the "Service") operated by Virasat Auctions ("us", "we", or "our").

1. These are the conditions of sale ran and conducted by a licensed auctioneer based in Lucknow. The licensee Virasat Auctions will hereinafter be referred to as "Auctioneer". Placing or making a bid in this listed Auction constitutes acceptance by you and/or your company (the "Bidder") of all the conditions of sale stated within this document. Bidders may also include consignors. A consignor may bid and purchase lots consigned by a consignor as per their individual agreements.

2. The Auctioneer reserves the right to include its own material in any auction sale.

3. A Bidder acknowledges and agrees that any Buyer's Premium or other charges incurred by a Bidder is not payable by the Auctioneer.

4. A Bidder acknowledges that the Auctioneer may have access to information that is not publically available for any and all auction lots. Any claimed conflict of interest or claimed competitive advantage resulting from this information is expressly waived by all participants in any Auction sale.

5. The Buyer for any lot is the Bidder who makes the highest bid accepted by the Auctioneer, and includes the principal of any Bidder acting as an agent. In the event of any dispute arising in an auction sale involving a Bidder or Bidders, the Auctioneer shall have absolute discretion to determine the outcome of any dispute or may decide to withdraw or relist the disputed lot.

6. The auctioneer reserve the right to postpone, rearrange or cancel an auction without notice at its sole discretion. Any individual lot or lots may also be withdrawn by Auctioneer without notice prior to the bidding process being open. Any Bidder accepts that the Auctioneer or Consignor shall not be liable for any costs or damages arising from either the withdrawn of material at the auction or the delay or cancellation of the auction.

7. The Auctioneer reserves the right and has absolute discretion to alter lots whether combining lots, dividing lots or withdrawing lots from the auction process without giving reason. All bidding shall be regulated by the Auctioneer and at their absolute discretion they shall have the right of refusal for any or all bid(s).

8. Any estimate figures for auction lot(s) are provided by the Auctioneer as an expected sale price only. Any listed price is not a representative of any possible reserve price and are published for the benefit of Bidders as a guide only. The Auctioneer reserves the right to reject any bids lower than the lot(s) estimate. Bidders may only bid within or above the estimated sale price for any particular lot(s).

9. Lots may carry a Reserve price. Reserve prices are confidential and Bidders will not be made aware of the reserve associated with any lot(s). The Auctioneer will not sell an item below reserve price or will re-purchase on behalf of the Consignor or Auctioneer. The Auctioneer reserves the right to place bids on behalf of the consignor up to the amount of a reserve price established by the consignor.

10. The Auctioneer shall not be responsible for any default by either buyer or seller or for any action, loss or claim arising in any lot.

11. Any and all item bids will be opened in numerical order. If more than one identical bid is received and represents a winning bid then the winning Bidder will be the earliest received chronologically. The decision of the Auctioneer in identifying the winning Bidder shall be final and at their sole discretion.

12. Only a registered member is allowed to bid in any auction. Each individual auction undertaken by the Auctioneer requires a new registration. Registration for a previous auction does not preclude or automate inclusion in another.

13. The registration process may require your Client ID and/or you may be required to fill a registration form. The registration form will require but may not be limited to your address, telephone number, and signature. After registration you will be allotted a numbered paddle to bid.

14. Any first time Bidder or registrant may be asked to provide references and/or a refundable Security Money Deposit and/or show a government-issued picture ID before the start of the auction, subject to the Auctioneer's sole discretion.

15. Any person submitting bids individually and/or on behalf of a corporation or any other person / persons, agrees to be personally liable for full payment of the invoice. The Auctioneer reserves the right to prevent Bidders from registering or taking part in any auction where previous bills are outstanding. If a Bidder defaults on payment the Auctioneer reserves the right to forfeit the registrants Security Money Deposit and this will not be returned.

16. Bidding commissions for registrants unable to attend the auction in person may be carried out by the Auctioneer without charge and in strict confidence. Any "BUY" commissions will only be accepted, solely at the absolute discretion of the Auctioneer.

17. The Auctioneer shall endeavour to make all efforts possible to enter and execute bids received by E-mail, Fax or by other means. However, the Auctioneer shall not be liable for any errors for incorrectly entered or incorrectly executed bids. Bidders are solely responsible for their bids made through any method including any errors they may make in doing so. The Auctioneer reserves the right to refuse and reject any unsigned bid sheet received.

18. All lots are sold as shown with all faults, imperfections and errors of description. Neither the Auctioneer nor the seller shall give or provide warranty to any buyer in respect of any lot, or be liable for any fault or error contained in a lot description. All statements as to the items sold, whether made in catalogues, during the course of the auction, or otherwise are statements of opinion only. Such statements are not to be taken as representations of fact and Bidders should carry out due diligence as they require. The Auctioneer reserves the right in forming his own opinion and to have the ability to consult and rely upon any expert or authority considered by him reliable. Notwithstanding the aforementioned terms if a winning Bidder finds that any lot should have been wrongly described in any material aspect, the buyer may reject the same. In doing so a Bidder must provide written notice of intention to do so and shall have returned the same item(s) to the Auctioneer within seven (7) days from the day of the sale. Bidders accept that the Auctioneer will not be responsible or liable for any costs, expenses or damages incurred by a lot or its return including, but not limited to, loss of any kind or profit whatsoever.

19. Bidders are advised by the Auctioneer to complete all due diligence and to scrutinize the lots they bid for prior to doing so. All Bidders and Buyers must satisfy themselves as to the accuracy of their purchases at the time of delivery. The Auctioneer cannot be held responsible for any discrepancy with a listing after the item(s) have been removed from their original packing.

20. Each lot shall be at the buyer's risk from the fall of the hammer.

21. Delivery is possible only when full payment has been given. Delivery of lot(s) may be made on the following day after receiving full payment of the purchase price.

22. The Purchase price is defined as the winning bid price plus Buyer's Premium and any applicable taxes. The full price has to be paid by the purchaser. The full and total invoice amount is to be paid by the buyer prior to delivery and within 7 days of the date specified on the invoice. The Auctioneer reserves the right and has sole discretion in charging interest at the rate of 2% per month for any overdue amount. If a bidder defaults on payment the Auctioneer has sole discretion and reserves the right to forfeit the registrants Security Money Deposit and this will not be returned.

23. Payment for lot(s) shall be in Indian Rupees. Payment can be made by cash, cheques / DD drawn on Indian banks or by electronic transfers. The full purchase price shall be paid prior to delivery of the lot. All associated costs for the delivery of lots such as handling, shipping, and insurance will be added to the purchase price. Any Credit card payment will be subject to a 3% surcharge on Master and Visa Cards. Any payment via accepted online payment processors will also be subject to a 3% surcharge but may vary depending on the individual processor.

24. The Auctioneer will not be liable for any lots left for more than seven (7) working days after the date of sale. The Auctioneer reserves the right to relist, re-sell or charge storage for any such lots. Buyers shall not be entitled to remove lots from the auction room during the course of the auction.

25. Export of Antiquities: All Buyers are required to be aware of any legislation regarding the export of antiquities. All Buyers are requested to note that as per the Antiquities and Art Treasures Act, 1972 (Act No. 52 of 1972), items (including coins) over 100 years old, cannot be exported out of India except at the express permission of the Director General, Archaeological Survey of India, Janpath, New Delhi.

26. By bidding in any auction and on any lot(s) a Bidder enters into a legal contract. By doing so a Bidder accepts to honour all his/her conditions of sale and shall be bound by them. These Conditions shall take effect and be construed in accordance with Indian law and are subject to Lucknow Jurisdiction as per the licence of the Auctioneer.

27. The Bidders are required to provide all invoicing details to Virasat Auctions prior to the sale at the time of registering. The Auctioneer reserves the right to reject or exclude Bidders that have not provided these details.

28. The Bidder accepts that price estimate(s) for any lot(s) do not include any packing, shipping, handling or insurance charges. All of the aforementioned will be borne by the buyer. The exact amount of shipping-handling and insurance will be conveyed when the final invoice is prepared and will vary depending on the specifics of each individual lot.

29. The Bidder accepts that any and all duties and taxes as applicable, including GST and/or Local Body will be borne by the buyer.

30. Buyers may choose to have the option to collect any and all of their purchases from the Virasat Auctions office in Lucknow after the transfer of full payment is completed.

31. Virasat Auctions reserves the right to publish / announce the names of any Bidders individual or otherwise that default on any payment. Publication can be made at the sole discretion of the Auctioneer on their website and at appropriate places. Such action protects the integrity of the Auctioneer and the industry as a whole. The Auctioneer will not be liable or responsible for any losses whether financial or otherwise resulting from a Bidder failing to pay or the following publication of name.

32. The auction is conducted in Indian Rupees unless otherwise detailed in the auction listing.

These Terms shall be governed and construed in accordance with the laws of India, without regard to its conflict of law provisions.
