Indus Valley Civilization - Diskette

02. (2x)

01. Ancient, Indus Valley Civilization, (c. 2500-1900 BC), Gold (86.14%) Ornament-Diskette Shaped with a Hole at Center for Stringing, 2.90 gms, 21.96 mm, A hoard of such diskettes were found in June 2000 in a copper urn at Mandi in Muzaffarnagar district, a place about 200 km north-east of Delhi. This hoard is hence popularly known as the Mandi treasure. The hoard included varieties of beads, bead joints, spacer beads and thin circular diskettes, similar to the one listed here. The listed artifact is a fine example of the metallurgical capability of the Indus Valley people, extremely fine, very rare.

01. Estimated Price - ₹55,000 – 60,000

02. Ancient, Indus Valley Civilization, (c. 2500-1900 BC), Gold (94.65%) Ornament-Diskette shaped with a Hole at Center for Stringing, 2.63 gms, 20.54 mm, A hoard of such diskettes were found in June 2000 in a copper urn at Mandi in Muzaffarnagar district, a place about 200 km north-east of Delhi. 02. Estimated Price - ₹50,000 – 55,000

¼ Shatamana

03. (1.5x)

03. Ancient, Archaic Punch Marked Coinage, Attributed to Gandhara Janapada, Silver 2 Shana or 1/4 Shatamana, 2.89 gms, 11.40x14.90 mm, "Local Swat Valley" type, Single 5 armed symbol on obverse, a Very Rare denomination as compared to the larger Bent Bar, Five armed symbol instead of the usual six armed symbol. This type too is found only in the Swat valley. It is argued that the denomination and weights of this type are somewhat different and perhaps could be attributed to Kamboja Janapada?, punch with 5 arms instead of the regular issue of Gandhara, which always has 6 arms (Rajgor-561 to 567), said to be from a small hoard discovered about 12 years ago, An alternative attribution is that this is not Kamboja Janapada, and is instead a rare variety of Gandhara with a 5-armed symbol instead of 6-armed (Rajgor-561 to 567), The ancient Kingdom of Gandhara was one of the original sixteen Mahajanapadas ("Great Kingdoms") mentioned in ancient Buddhist texts like the Anguttara Nikaya. Gandhara, centered around the important ancient cities of Purushapura (modern Peshawar). Takshashila or Taxila, and Pushkalavati (the capital of the Kingdom) and covering the regions of northern Pakistan and eastern Afghanistan, though on occasions it extended as far as Kashmir, See Fishman, JONS 202, Fig. 5, Uniface, Unlisted, very fine, very rare.

03. Estimated Price - ₹2,500 – 3,000

04. Ancient, Punch Marked Coinage, Middle Ganga Valley, Kashi Mahajanapada (c. 6th-5th Century BC), AABC Configuration, archaic scyphate, Silver Vimshatika, 5.03 gms, 24.46 mm, Obv: Flower symbol x 2, Four-arm wavy symbol x 1, 3-S symbol x 1, Banker's mark, Rev: Uniface, The Kashi Mahajanapada was one of the sixteen Mahajanapadas that flourished in northern India during the 6th–5th centuries BCE. With its capital at Varanasi (Kashi), it was among the earliest and most prosperous kingdoms, playing a significant role in the political, commercial, and religious life of ancient India. Kashi frequently competed with Kosala, Magadha, and Anga for dominance in the middle Ganga valley before eventually being annexed by Kosala during the time of the Buddha, while continuing to remain an important centre of trade and religion, Unlisted Variety in Major Publications, about very fine, very rare.

Ranas of Mewar, Rana Banbir (1536-1541 AD), Copper Falus, 7.92 gms, 14.12 mm, VS 1594 (AD 1537), Obv: Devanagari legend rana sri / banbir / sam 1594, Rev: al-sultan bin al-sultan, Rana Banbir was the ruler of Mewar Kingdom between 1536 & 1540. He was allegedly the son of Prithviraj (elder brother of Rana Sanga) & a maid. He was appointed as the official ruler of the state when Vikramaditya Singh was imprisoned. Rana Banbir decided to kill the imprisoned Vikramaditya, & he also killed various ministers (Samantas) who were in his way. He attempted to kill the 14-year-old heir Udai Singh, but Udai Singh's nursemaid Panna Dai replaced the prince with her son Chandar who was killed instead. Rana Banbir declared himself to be the ruler of Mewar & Chittor. In 1540, when Udai Singh was 18 years old, he attacked Chittorgarh with the help of several Samantas together with Akhey Raj Songara, the ruler of Jalore & Udai Singh's father-in-law. The armies of Rana Banbir & Udai Singh met at the battle field of Malvi (south of Chittorgarh) Udai Singh won and ascended the throne as Udai Singh II, and Rana Banbir was sent into exile, and was killed later in 1540 while struggling with tribal groups who killed him, G&G # M273.

Akbar - Bhakkar Mint Unlisted in KM Catalogue An Exceptionally Rare Specimen

230. (3x)

230. Mughal, Akbar (AH 963-1014, 1556-1605 AD), Gold Mohur, 10.77 gms, 19.14 mm, Bakkar (Bhakkar) Mint (off flan), AH (986), rev: Kalima Shahada, anchor mint mark & four Caliphs' name in the margin, obv: "Jalal-ud-din Muhammad Akbar Badshah ghazi, 986", Unlisted in KM, Ref # Similar to Virasat Auction 16, Lot 345, extra fine+, Missing from all major collections; an exceptionally rare specimen.

Ref: The attribution of this issue to the Bhakkar (Bakkar) Mint is based on die comparison and surviving reference specimens. A specimen published on Zeno (Zeno #129408) preserves the mint name sufficiently to confirm the reading as Bhakkar, although the present coin has the mint portion off the flan. The Zeno specimen is cited solely as a reference for the mint reading. Further supporting this attribution is the silver rupee offered in Virasat Auction 16, Lot 345, which originated from a small group of specimens that surfaced approximately fifteen years ago. Among that group, it was the only example with the mint name clearly legible. Previously, similar coins appearing in various auctions had generally been catalogued as Bang Mint due to the incomplete or off-flan mint inscription. The readable Virasat specimen conclusively demonstrated that these coins should instead be attributed to Bhakkar Mint. A small number of gold mohurs struck from the same or closely related dies are also known, reinforcing this revised attribution. Accordingly, the present gold mohur is confidently catalogued as a Bhakkar (Bakkar) Mint issue despite the mint name being off the flan.

1/4 Nisar Aurangzeb - Akbarabad 1/4 Rupee Nisar - Largesse Coin

277. (6.5x)

277. Mughal, Aurangzeb (AH 1068-1118, 1658-1707 AD), Silver 1/4 Rupee, Nisar (Largesse Coinage), 2.82 gms, 13.50 mm, Akbarabad Mint (fully visible at top on reverse), AH 1081, RY (1)3, Obv: Persian legends "Nisar Alamgir Badshah Ghazi", Rev: Persian legend "zarb Akbarabad", Nisar coins of Aurangzeb are rare ceremonial issues, struck specifically for royal largesse and distribution during festivals, processions, and important imperial occasions, rather than for regular monetary circulation. The term "Nisar" signifies scattering or distributing, reflecting the Mughal tradition of imperial generosity and royal patronage. Their special purpose, limited production, and association with significant events of Aurangzeb's reign make them highly collectible and historically important. The present offering is a 1/4 Rupee Nisar of Aurangzeb (Alamgir I), distinguished by its exceptionally clear and complete legends. The date AH 1081 is clearly visible on the reverse, along with the complete mint name "Akbarabad", making this a particularly standout specimen. On the obverse, the imperial title "Alamgir", the regnal title adopted by Aurangzeb, appears alongside the word "Nisar." Such beautifully preserved and clearly legible Nisar issues of Aurangzeb are seldom encountered, and examples displaying both the complete date and mint name are especially desirable. A rare and highly collectible ceremonial issue, it represents an exceptional opportunity for the serious collector of Mughal numismatics and Aurangzeb's coinage, KM # 306.1, similar to Zeno # 188342, about Uncirculated, very rare.

Kashmir prospered through its renowned shawl, silk, saffron, and fruit industries, and the Kashmir Mint continued striking coins in Aurangzeb's name. His reign strengthened imperial administration and promoted Sunni Islamic policies. In 1671 AD / AH 1081/1082, Governor Iftikhar Khan became notorious for the persecution of the Kashmiri Pandit community, reports of forced conversions, and the destruction of some temples. In 1675 AD / AH 1085 - 1086, a delegation of Kashmiri Pandits led by Pandit Kirpa Ram sought the protection of Guru Tegh Bahadur. His refusal to accept Aurangzeb's religious policies led to his arrest and execution in Delhi, an event that profoundly transformed Mughal–Sikh relations and paved the way for the later militarization of the Sikh community under the Khalsa. Following Aurangzeb's death in 1707 AD / AH 1119, Mughal authority gradually weakened, and Kashmir eventually came under Afghan Durrani rule in 1752 AD / AH 1165 - 1166, Zeno # 145324, KM # 315.28, very fine+, extremely rare.

Governed by imperial officials such as the Faujdar, Amil, and Qazi, the city followed the Mughal revenue system established under Akbar. Owing to Aurangzeb's prolonged Deccan campaigns, Ujjain became a key transit point for imperial armies and supplies moving between northern India and the Deccan. Despite its administrative role, it remained one of Hinduism's foremost pilgrimage centres, centred on the Mahakaleshwar Jyotirlinga. After Aurangzeb's death in 1707 AD, weakening Mughal authority in Malwa enabled the gradual expansion of Maratha power into the region. Unlisted Variety in KM, test mark on rev overall very fine, rare. 302. After 1657 AD, the Mughal Empire steadily absorbed the territories of Bijapur, and before its final fall in 1686 AD, several important mints operated across the Deccan. Through diplomacy and political influence rather than prolonged warfare, Prince Muazzam — later Emperor Shah Alam Bahadur — successfully brought Bijapur under Mughal suzerainty. In March 1680 AD, the Khutbah was read at Bijapur in the name of Emperor Aurangzeb, and gold and silver coinage began to be struck in the Mughal emperor's name, marking one of Shah Alam Bahadur's greatest political achievements in the Deccan.

Among the important Deccan mint towns, Torgal emerged as a prominent Mughal military and administrative centre. Located in present-day Ramdurg Taluk of the Belagavi (Belgaum) district in Karnataka, Torgal was an important provincial headquarters and mint town during the late medieval and Mughal periods. The town and its massive historic fortress, situated along the banks of the Malaprabha River, occupied a strategic position on key frontier routes linking Bijapur, Dharwar, and the Carnatic region. Torgal gained increasing prominence during the Mughal campaigns against the Adil Shahi kingdom, the reorganization of the Deccan into the Subah of Dar-uz-Zafar Bijapur, and the subsequent war of succession following Aurangzeb's death. Its mint symbolized the extension of Mughal political and monetary authority deep into the Deccan under Shah Alam Bahadur.

Following the victory of Shah Alam Bahadur over his brothers Azam Shah and Kam Bakhsh, the Deccan — including Torgal and its mint — firmly came under imperial Mughal control, with coinage continuing to be issued in the Mughal emperor's name from the important regional mints.

It served as a major military, administrative, and commercial centre, regulating the movement of imperial officials, armies, merchants, and goods between the Mughal heartland and the north-western frontier. During the reign of Muhammad Shah (AH 1131–1161 / AD 1719–1748), Sirhind continued to prosper owing to its strategic location on the Delhi–Lahore highway and the fertility of its surrounding agricultural hinterland. It remained an important administrative headquarters and a notable centre of Islamic learning and religious activity. However, the period also witnessed the gradual erosion of Mughal authority; repeated Sikh incursions, increasing regional instability, and the devastating invasion of Nader Shah in 1739 weakened imperial control, marking the beginning of Sirhind's decline from its former prominence despite its continued importance as a military and commercial waypoint, KM # 438.21, extremely fine, rare.

337. Mughal, Muhammad Ibrahim (AH 1132-1133, 1720 AD), Silver Rupee, 11.34 gms, 21.11 mm, Dar ul-Khilafat Shahjahanabad Mint (mostly visible at top on rev), RY Ahd, Obv: Legend sikka-i-zad dar Jahan ba fazle karim, shahaan-e-shah Muhammad Ibrahim, Rev: Mint-name, RY and Jalus Maimanat Manus, Muhammad Ibrahim (AH 1132-1133 / 1720 AD) was a short-lived Mughal claimant who occupied the throne at Shahjahanabad (Delhi) for only a few weeks during the dynastic struggles that followed the death of Emperor Bahadur Shah I. A grandson of Bahadur Shah I, he was proclaimed emperor by a rival court faction, but his authority remained largely confined to the imperial capital and was never widely recognized. Later in 1720 AD, he was deposed by Muhammad Shah, ending one of the briefest reigns in Mughal history. Despite his ephemeral rule, the Shahjahanabad Mint struck silver rupees in his name, making these issues historically significant, highly sought-after, and considerably rarer than the regular coinage of longer-reigning Mughal emperors. His coinage stands as a tangible reminder of the political instability and rapid succession of rulers that marked the decline of centralized Mughal authority in the early eighteenth century, KM # 426.1, similar to Zeno # 299105, very fine, very rare.

Although his reign was politically turbulent, it is of exceptional numismatic importance. Gold mohurs of Alamgir II bearing the Kalima are among the most desirable late Mughal gold issues, as they mark the revival of a long-abandoned imperial tradition. The Kalima, which had disappeared from Mughal coinage during the reign of Aurangzeb (Alamgir I), was restored under Alamgir II, making these coins a remarkable departure from the preceding century of Mughal monetary design. Combining historical significance, religious inscription, and the rarity of late Mughal gold coinage, Kalima-bearing mohurs of Alamgir II rank among the most collectible and sought-after issues of the eighteenth-century Mughal series, KM # 464.1, very fine, extremely rare.

Unlike contemporary rulers, Ranjit Singh chose not to place his own name on his coinage, instead dedicating it to Guru Nanak Dev Ji and Guru Gobind Singh Ji, symbolizing that sovereignty belonged to the Sikh Gurus. The obverse bears the celebrated Nanakshahi Persian couplet: "Sikka zad bar har do alam fazl-i-Sacha Sahib ast, Fateh Tegh-i-Guru Gobind Singh Shah-i-Nanak Wahab ast," meaning, "By the grace of the True Lord, the coin has been struck in both worlds; victory belongs to the sword of Guru Gobind Singh, and the gift is from Guru Nanak." This remarkable inscription embodies the spiritual foundation of the Sikh Empire while commemorating the martial legacy of Guru Gobind Singh. Struck at Amritsar, the foremost mint and spiritual heart of Sikhism, these rupees remain among the most iconic and historically significant issues of Sikh numismatics, highly prized by collectors for their historical importance, dated varieties, and distinctive mint characteristics, Herrli # 01.07.04, G. 434. (2x)

434. Indian Princely States, Awadh State, Brijis Qadr (AH 1273-1274, 1857-1858 AD), Silver Rupee, Approx 11.30 gms, Approx 21 mm, Suba Awadh Mint, AH 1229, RY 26, Birjis Qadr was the son of Nawab Wajid Ali Shah & was proclaimed Nawab of Awadh at Lucknow during the Revolt of 1857 after the British annexation of the kingdom. As a minor, the administration was effectively directed by his mother, Begum Hazrat Mahal. His accession symbolized the restoration of Awadh's sovereignty and provided a legitimate rallying point for rebels, taluqdars, and local elites opposing British rule. Recognized by the Mughal emperor Bahadur Shah II, Birjis Qadr served as the nominal head of a rebel government that controlled much of Awadh during the uprising. His brief reign ended with the British recapture of Lucknow in 1858, after which he and Begum Hazrat Mahal sought refuge in Nepal. Despite its short duration, his reign remains historically significant as the last assertion of independent Awadhi rule and is commemorated through the rare coinage issued in his name during the rebellion, KM # 386, Kapoor & Master Page 160 Ref 12.07, NGC graded MS-66, the highest-graded example in the NGC Population Report, extremely rare in this grade.

Kaisar-i-Hind 96.12 Gms, 56.57x70.08 mm

583. (2x)

583. British India, Issued to commemorate the Proclamation of Queen Victoria as Empress of India (Kaiser-i-Hind) at the historic Delhi Imperial Assemblage (Delhi Durbar) on 1 January 1877, Silver Medal, 96.12 gms, 56.57x70.08 mm, 1877 AD, this official silver medal marks one of the most significant events of the British Raj. The obverse features the veiled bust of Queen Victoria wearing a small coronet, together with the date "1st January 1877." The reverse bears the inscription "Empress of India" and "Kaiser-i-Hind" in English, Urdu, and Devanagari, symbolizing the British Crown's assumption of direct imperial authority over India following the dissolution of the East India Company's rule after the Revolt of 1857. Issued unnamed, the silver medal was awarded to selected Indian civilians and officers of both British and Indian regiments serving in India at the time. Today, it remains an important historical and numismatic relic of the early British Indian Empire, with well-preserved examples being highly collectible and increasingly scarce, With clasp, Numista # 421755, MYB # 292, extremely fine, rare.

598. Alwar State – Maharaja Sir Tej Singh Prabhakar (17 March 1911 – 15 February 2009), Gold-plated silver royal badge in the form of radiating sun rays, Gold-plated Silver Badge, 38.85 gms, 71.20x77.90 mm, surmounted by a royal dome (chatri/crown) and centered with a glass-covered portrait of the ruler. A blue enamel scroll bears the Devanagari motto "आत्म सतत वृद्धि" (Ātma Satat Vṛddhi), meaning "Continuous Self-Development" or "Perpetual Self-Progress." The reverse retains its original pin and clasp. An attractive and uncommon example of Indian princely state ceremonial insignia, combining fine silver workmanship, gold plating, and enamel decoration, Maharaja Sir Tej Singh Prabhakar was the last ruling Maharaja of the princely state of Alwar in Rajasthan. A member of the Naruka Rajput dynasty, he ascended the throne on 22 July 1937 and ruled until the accession of Alwar to the Indian Union in 1947. Following Independence, he continued as the titular Maharaja until the formal abolition of royal titles and privy purses by the Government of India in 1971. His reign marked the final chapter in the history of Alwar's princely state under the Naruka dynasty.

Note on Identification: The badge is attributed to Alwar State based on the visual comparison of the jewellery and ornaments worn by the portrait with those seen in documented photographs of the Maharajas of Alwar. It is also reasonable to consider that such ceremonial jewellery and ornaments may have been passed down and reused by successive generations of the royal family. On this basis, we have attributed the portrait to the Alwar State; however, this attribution is not stated as definitive. An alternative opinion has been received from a veteran and experienced collector suggesting that the portrait visible beneath the glass shield may instead be that of Sawai Man Singh II of Jaipur. This alternative attribution is presented solely as an opinion for the consideration of prospective buyers. The identification of the state, ruler, or portrait remains at the sole discretion and jurisdiction of the buyer. The sale shall be considered final, and no refund, return, cancellation, or claim shall be entertained on the basis of any difference of opinion regarding the identification or attribution of the state or portrait. very fine, rare.

Set of 2 objects, 1). 2.72 gms, 14.22x49.55, 2). 8.34 gms, 25.32x37.14, This lot consists of two ancient bronze/copper objects, likely weights or tokens from c. 2nd–10th century CE, spanning the late Kushan to early medieval Indian period. The first is a 2.72 g shield-shaped piece with a suspension hole and clustered punch marks, likely used for administrative or trade validation. The second is an 8.34 g matched pair of elongated teardrop-shaped pieces featuring punched impressions and raised bosses, suggesting standardized manufacturing and possible repeated use in early transactional systems. Both exhibit strong age patina and oxidation consistent with long burial. Together, they represent early Indian metrological and trade practices within regional economic networks, very fine, scarce.

603. Republic of India, Bronze 50 Paise Cash Token, 4.52 gms, 23.63 mm, Minted at the India Government Mint in Alipore (Calcutta) shortly after it commenced full operations on March 19, 1952 AD, this Bronze 50 Paise Cash Token was issued strictly for internal use by mint personnel and never entered public circulation. It is one of a five-piece internal series—including aluminium 5 paisa, aluminium 10 paisa, bronze 25 paisa, bronze 50 paisa, and bronze 1 rupee—catalogued under Thakkar 100.2.18–21, 23, with the bronze 50 paisa token designated as 100.2.20. Struck in brass, it measures approximately 23.8 mm in diameter, weighs ~4.35 g, features a central round hole, and carries milled edges. The obverse shows “50 Paisa” above the hole and identifies the mint on the reverse with “I.G. MINT ALIPORE * CASH TOKEN.”, this scarce token exhibits only light internal contact marks typical of restricted mint usage, and is a significant piece for collectors of Indian mint exnumia from the post-independence period. Ref: Thakkar # 100.2.20, almost uncirculated condition, scarce.

Conditions of Sale

Please read these Terms of Use ("Terms", "Terms of Use") carefully before using the <http://virasatauctions.com> website (the "Service") operated by Virasat Auctions ("us", "we", or "our").

1. These are the conditions of sale ran and conducted by a licensed auctioneer based in Lucknow. The licensee Virasat Auctions will hereinafter be referred to as "Auctioneer". Placing or making a bid in this listed Auction constitutes acceptance by you and/or your company (the "Bidder") of all the conditions of sale stated within this document. Bidders may also include consignors. A consignor may bid and purchase lots consigned by a consignor as per their individual agreements.

2. The Auctioneer reserves the right to include its own material in any auction sale.

3. A Bidder acknowledges and agrees that any Buyer's Premium or other charges incurred by a Bidder is not payable by the Auctioneer.

4. A Bidder acknowledges that the Auctioneer may have access to information that is not publically available for any and all auction lots. Any claimed conflict of interest or claimed competitive advantage resulting from this information is expressly waived by all participants in any Auction sale.

5. The Buyer for any lot is the Bidder who makes the highest bid accepted by the Auctioneer, and includes the principal of any Bidder acting as an agent. In the event of any dispute arising in an auction sale involving a Bidder or Bidders, the Auctioneer shall have absolute discretion to determine the outcome of any dispute or may decide to withdraw or relist the disputed lot.

6. The auctioneer reserve the right to postpone, rearrange or cancel an auction without notice at its sole discretion. Any individual lot or lots may also be withdrawn by Auctioneer without notice prior to the bidding process being open. Any Bidder accepts that the Auctioneer or Consignor shall not be liable for any costs or damages arising from either the withdrawn of material at the auction or the delay or cancellation of the auction.

7. The Auctioneer reserves the right and has absolute discretion to alter lots whether combining lots, dividing lots or withdrawing lots from the auction process without giving reason. All bidding shall be regulated by the Auctioneer and at their absolute discretion they shall have the right of refusal for any or all bid(s).

8. Any estimate figures for auction lot(s) are provided by the Auctioneer as an expected sale price only. Any listed price is not a representative of any possible reserve price and are published for the benefit of Bidders as a guide only. The Auctioneer reserves the right to reject any bids lower than the lot(s) estimate. Bidders may only bid within or above the estimated sale price for any particular lot(s).

9. Lots may carry a Reserve price. Reserve prices are confidential and Bidders will not be made aware of the reserve associated with any lot(s). The Auctioneer will not sell an item below reserve price or will re-purchase on behalf of the Consignor or Auctioneer. The Auctioneer reserves the right to place bids on behalf of the consignor up to the amount of a reserve price established by the consignor.

10. The Auctioneer shall not be responsible for any default by either buyer or seller or for any action, loss or claim arising in any lot.

11. Any and all item bids will be opened in numerical order. If more than one identical bid is received and represents a winning bid then the winning Bidder will be the earliest received chronologically. The decision of the Auctioneer in identifying the winning Bidder shall be final and at their sole discretion.

12. Only a registered member is allowed to bid in any auction. Each individual auction undertaken by the Auctioneer requires a new registration. Registration for a previous auction does not preclude or automate inclusion in another.

13. The registration process may require your Client ID and/or you may be required to fill a registration form. The registration form will require but may not be limited to your address, telephone number, and signature. After registration you will be allotted a numbered paddle to bid.

14. Any first time Bidder or registrant may be asked to provide references and/or a refundable Security Money Deposit and/or show a government-issued picture ID before the start of the auction, subject to the Auctioneer's sole discretion.

15. Any person submitting bids individually and/or on behalf of a corporation or any other person / persons, agrees to be personally liable for full payment of the invoice. The Auctioneer reserves the right to prevent Bidders from registering or taking part in any auction where previous bills are outstanding. If a Bidder defaults on payment the Auctioneer reserves the right to forfeit the registrants Security Money Deposit and this will not be returned.

16. Bidding commissions for registrants unable to attend the auction in person may be carried out by the Auctioneer without charge and in strict confidence. Any "BUY" commissions will only be accepted, solely at the absolute discretion of the Auctioneer.

17. The Auctioneer shall endeavour to make all efforts possible to enter and execute bids received by E-mail, Fax or by other means. However, the Auctioneer shall not be liable for any errors for incorrectly entered or incorrectly executed bids. Bidders are solely responsible for their bids made through any method including any errors they may make in doing so. The Auctioneer reserves the right to refuse and reject any unsigned bid sheet received.

18. All lots are sold as shown with all faults, imperfections and errors of description. Neither the Auctioneer nor the seller shall give or provide warranty to any buyer in respect of any lot, or be liable for any fault or error contained in a lot description. All statements as to the items sold, whether made in catalogues, during the course of the auction, or otherwise are statements of opinion only. Such statements are not to be taken as representations of fact and Bidders should carry out due diligence as they require. The Auctioneer reserves the right in forming his own opinion and to have the ability to consult and rely upon any expert or authority considered by him reliable. Notwithstanding the aforementioned terms if a winning Bidder finds that any lot should have been wrongly described in any material aspect, the buyer may reject the same. In doing so a Bidder must provide written notice of intention to do so and shall have returned the same item(s) to the Auctioneer within seven (7) days from the day of the sale. Bidders accept that the Auctioneer will not be responsible or liable for any costs, expenses or damages incurred by a lot or its return including, but not limited to, loss of any kind or profit whatsoever.

19. Bidders are advised by the Auctioneer to complete all due diligence and to scrutinize the lots they bid for prior to doing so. All Bidders and Buyers must satisfy themselves as to the accuracy of their purchases at the time of delivery. The Auctioneer cannot be held responsible for any discrepancy with a listing after the item(s) have been removed from their original packing.

20. Each lot shall be at the buyer's risk from the fall of the hammer.

21. Delivery is possible only when full payment has been given. Delivery of lot(s) may be made on the following day after receiving full payment of the purchase price.

22. The Purchase price is defined as the winning bid price plus Buyer's Premium and any applicable taxes. The full price has to be paid by the purchaser. The full and total invoice amount is to be paid by the buyer prior to delivery and within 7 days of the date specified on the invoice. The Auctioneer reserves the right and has sole discretion in charging interest at the rate of 2% per month for any overdue amount. If a bidder defaults on payment the Auctioneer has sole discretion and reserves the right to forfeit the registrants Security Money Deposit and this will not be returned.

23. Payment for lot(s) shall be in Indian Rupees. Payment can be made by cash, cheques / DD drawn on Indian banks or by electronic transfers. The full purchase price shall be paid prior to delivery of the lot. All associated costs for the delivery of lots such as handling, shipping, and insurance will be added to the purchase price. Any Credit card payment will be subject to a 3% surcharge on Master and Visa Cards. Any payment via accepted online payment processors will also be subject to a 3% surcharge but may vary depending on the individual processor.

24. The Auctioneer will not be liable for any lots left for more than seven (7) working days after the date of sale. The Auctioneer reserves the right to relist, re-sell or charge storage for any such lots. Buyers shall not be entitled to remove lots from the auction room during the course of the auction.

25. Export of Antiquities: All Buyers are required to be aware of any legislation regarding the export of antiquities. All Buyers are requested to note that as per the Antiquities and Art Treasures Act, 1972 (Act No. 52 of 1972), items (including coins) over 100 years old, cannot be exported out of India except at the express permission of the Director General, Archaeological Survey of India, Janpath, New Delhi.

26. By bidding in any auction and on any lot(s) a Bidder enters into a legal contract. By doing so a Bidder accepts to honour all his/her conditions of sale and shall be bound by them. These Conditions shall take effect and be construed in accordance with Indian law and are subject to Lucknow Jurisdiction as per the licence of the Auctioneer.

27. The Bidders are required to provide all invoicing details to Virasat Auctions prior to the sale at the time of registering. The Auctioneer reserves the right to reject or exclude Bidders that have not provided these details.

28. The Bidder accepts that price estimate(s) for any lot(s) do not include any packing, shipping, handling or insurance charges. All of the aforementioned will be borne by the buyer. The exact amount of shipping-handling and insurance will be conveyed when the final invoice is prepared and will vary depending on the specifics of each individual lot.

29. The Bidder accepts that any and all duties and taxes as applicable, including GST and/or Local Body will be borne by the buyer.

30. Buyers may choose to have the option to collect any and all of their purchases from the Virasat Auctions office in Lucknow after the transfer of full payment is completed.

31. Virasat Auctions reserves the right to publish / announce the names of any Bidders individual or otherwise that default on any payment. Publication can be made at the sole discretion of the Auctioneer on their website and at appropriate places. Such action protects the integrity of the Auctioneer and the industry as a whole. The Auctioneer will not be liable or responsible for any losses whether financial or otherwise resulting from a Bidder failing to pay or the following publication of name.

32. The auction is conducted in Indian Rupees unless otherwise detailed in the auction listing.

These Terms shall be governed and construed in accordance with the laws of India, without regard to its conflict of law provisions.
