Sikandar Lodi

291. (4x)

291. Dehli Sultan, Sikandar Shah Lodi (AH 894-923, 1488-1517 AD), Gold Tanka, 10.73 gms, 19.68 mm, AH xx9, Similar to G&G # D701 (AR Tanka). Gold and silver coins of the Sikander Lodi are exceedingly rare while most of his coinage comprises of highly debased billon issues. The recorded gold issues were struck from specialized dies with ornamental borders. This tanka however seems to have been struck from dies that were also used to strike silver tankas. This variety is unpublished in the standard catalogs of Dehli Sultanate coins and is only the second known issue to be offered at auction. Whereas, the specimen does not have a date or mint, based on die comparison it can be established that these dies were used early in the reign of Sikander Lodi to strike silver tankas while specialized gold dies were used towards the later part of his reign. Unpublished in Goron & Goenka Similar to ZENO # 48666, very fine, extremely rare.

Bengal Sultan

Ghiyath al-din Bahadur + Muhammad bin Tughlaq
Joint Issue

322. (2X)

322. Sunargaon Mint, Obv: in double rectangle set in circle, Arabic legend Darb bi -Amr al-Wathiqq Billah Muhammad bin Tughlaq shah; mint and date details in margin (off flan). Rev: in double rectangle, Arabic legend legend al -Sultan al-Mu'azzam Ghiyath al-Dunya wa al-Din Abu al-Muzaffar Bahadur Shah al-Sultan bin al –Sultan.

Ghiyath al-Din Bahadur Shah was the independent Sultan of Bengal from 1320-24 CE (720-24 AH). His reign as an independent ruler ended when his brother and rival to the throne, Nasir al-Din Ibrahim requested the assistance of the Dehli Sultan Ghiyath al-Din Tughlaq in ousting Bahadur shah. Bahadur Shah's army were defeated by the imperial forces albeit after stiff resistance, Bahadur shah was captured and taken to Dehli as a prisoner. Ghiyath al-Din Tughlaq's successor, Muhammad bin Tughlaq released Bahadur shah and granted him the rule of Bengal as a vassal. As a vassal of Muhammad bin Tughlaq, Bahadur shah struck coins in his names from Bengal. The specimen being offered here is a brilliant example of the joint coinage of the Dehli and Bengal Sultan. These joint issues are known only for the year 728 AH which is also the year in which Bahadur Shah rebelled and asserted his independence. The coin being offered here was issued from the mint of Hadrat Sunargaon. The word Sunargaon is clearly legible in the obverse margin from six to four o'clock while the date is also readable as 'thaman wa ashrein ...' i.e., eight and twenty and therefore attributable to the year 728 AH. G&G # B116, very fine, extremely rare.

Humayun sought Tahmasp's assistance to regain his throne by initially conquering Qandahar. Tahmasp provided his support to Humayun on two conditions: Humayun should embrace the Shiite creed and that Qandahar be placed under Safavid control. Humayun acquiesced to both conditions and was able to get control of Qandahar in 952 AH. The coin being issued here bears the Shiite kalima (profession of faith) and has Humayun's name while also citing Shah Tahmasp as his overlord. This is a historic coin that bears testament to the event that eventually led to the return of Mughals to Hindustan. 419. Mughal, Akbar (AH 963-1014, 1556-1605 AD), Silver Rupee, 11.33 gms, 22.84 mm, Sitpur Mint, Ilahi Month Mihr (Libra), Year 48, with the Persian word Darb for half, which is usually found on Half Rupee coins, The word 'darb' inscribed on the reverse poses a conundrum: one hand it has been listed by the author of Ain-e-Akbari as an official denomination issued by the royal mint during the reign of Akbar. The text explicitly lists 'darb' as being an official silver coin that is half a 'Jalah' which in turn is described as a square silver rupee. However, the word is found inscribed on silver rupees issued from the mint of Sitpur, for the Ilahi years 48-49 (1011-12 CE). Another explanation of the word can be arrived at, by considering the meaning of the word 'darb' in Farsi / Persian which was the official court language of the Moghuls. In Farsi the word 'darb' has the additional meaning of a 'port' (for ships), in which case the word 'darb' can be considered as an epithet of the mint name: port of Sitpur, similar to the usage of the word 'bandar' to designate a port town / city. The coin being offered here is a beautiful, high grade specimen of this series, KM # 94.4, very fine+, extremely rare.

He entered the military service of the V.O.C. (United Dutch East India Company). At an early age of thirteen and arrived Ceylon in 1752. Five years later he returned to Netherlands but obviously longing for adventure he returned in 1763 to the east again. Possibly as a result of Fourth Anglo-Dutch War, by which in 1781 the British occupied the Dutch settlements in India, Hessing, as did many of his colleagues took refuge with the local potentates and entered into military service with them. Hessing first served in the army of the Nizam of the Deccan and in 1784 entered the services of Sindhia, where he got the command of two battalions formed by Benoit de Boigne. On 16 April 1799 Perron captured the Agra Fort for Daulat Rao. Hessing was thereupon appointed Commander of the Agra Fort and its Maratha garrison and the city of Agra. # Conditions of Sale

Please read these Terms of Use ("Terms", "Terms of Use") carefully before using the <http://virasatauctions.com> website (the "Service") operated by Virasat Auctions ("us", "we", or "our").

1. These are the conditions of sale ran and conducted by a licensed auctioneer based in Lucknow. The licensee Virasat Auctions will hereinafter be referred to as "Auctioneer". Placing or making a bid in this listed Auction constitutes acceptance by you and/or your company (the "Bidder") of all the conditions of sale stated within this document. Bidders may also include consignors. A consignor may bid and purchase lots consigned by a consignor as per their individual agreements.

2. The Auctioneer reserves the right to include its own material in any auction sale.

3. A Bidder acknowledges and agrees that any Buyer's Premium or other charges incurred by a Bidder is not payable by the Auctioneer.

4. A Bidder acknowledges that the Auctioneer may have access to information that is not publically available for any and all auction lots. Any claimed conflict of interest or claimed competitive advantage resulting from this information is expressly waived by all participants in any Auction sale.

5. The Buyer for any lot is the Bidder who makes the highest bid accepted by the Auctioneer, and includes the principal of any Bidder acting as an agent. In the event of any dispute arising in an auction sale involving a Bidder or Bidders, the Auctioneer shall have absolute discretion to determine the outcome of any dispute or may decide to withdraw or relist the disputed lot.

6. The auctioneer reserve the right to postpone, rearrange or cancel an auction without notice at its sole discretion. Any individual lot or lots may also be withdrawn by Auctioneer without notice prior to the bidding process being open. Any Bidder accepts that the Auctioneer or Consignor shall not be liable for any costs or damages arising from either the withdrawn of material at the auction or the delay or cancellation of the auction.

7. The Auctioneer reserves the right and has absolute discretion to alter lots whether combining lots, dividing lots or withdrawing lots from the auction process without giving reason. All bidding shall be regulated by the Auctioneer and at their absolute discretion they shall have the right of refusal for any or all bid(s).

8. Any estimate figures for auction lot(s) are provided by the Auctioneer as an expected sale price only. Any listed price is not a representative of any possible reserve price and are published for the benefit of Bidders as a guide only. The Auctioneer reserves the right to reject any bids lower than the lot(s) estimate. Bidders may only bid within or above the estimated sale price for any particular lot(s).

9. Lots may carry a Reserve price. Reserve prices are confidential and Bidders will not be made aware of the reserve associated with any lot(s). The Auctioneer will not sell an item below reserve price or will re-purchase on behalf of the Consignor or Auctioneer. The Auctioneer reserves the right to place bids on behalf of the consignor up to the amount of a reserve price established by the consignor.

10. The Auctioneer shall not be responsible for any default by either buyer or seller or for any action, loss or claim arising in any lot.

11. Any and all item bids will be opened in numerical order. If more than one identical bid is received and represents a winning bid then the winning Bidder will be the earliest received chronologically. The decision of the Auctioneer in identifying the winning Bidder shall be final and at their sole discretion.

12. Only a registered member is allowed to bid in any auction. Each individual auction undertaken by the Auctioneer requires a new registration. Registration for a previous auction does not preclude or automate inclusion in another.

13. The registration process may require your Client ID and/or you may be required to fill a registration form. The registration form will require but may not be limited to your address, telephone number, and signature. After registration you will be allotted a numbered paddle to bid.

If a Bidder defaults on payment the Auctioneer reserves the right to forfeit the registrants Security Money Deposit and this will not be returned.

16. Bidding commissions for registrants unable to attend the auction in person may be carried out by the Auctioneer without charge and in strict confidence. Any "BUY" commissions will only be accepted, solely at the absolute discretion of the Auctioneer.

17. The Auctioneer shall endeavour to make all efforts possible to enter and execute bids received by E-mail, Fax or by other means. However, the Auctioneer shall not be liable for any errors for incorrectly entered or incorrectly executed bids. Bidders are solely responsible for their bids made through any method including any errors they may make in doing so. The Auctioneer reserves the right to refuse and reject any unsigned bid sheet received.

18. All lots are sold as shown with all faults, imperfections and errors of description. Neither the Auctioneer nor the seller shall give or provide warranty to any buyer in respect of any lot, or be liable for any fault or error contained in a lot description. All statements as to the items sold, whether made in catalogues, during the course of the auction, or otherwise are statements of opinion only. Such statements are not to be taken as representations of fact and Bidders should carry out due diligence as they require. The Auctioneer reserves the right in forming his own opinion and to have the ability to consult and rely upon any expert or authority considered by him reliable. Notwithstanding the aforementioned terms if a winning Bidder finds that any lot should have been wrongly described in any material aspect, the buyer may reject the same. In doing so a Bidder must provide written notice of intention to do so and shall have returned the same item(s) to the Auctioneer within seven (7) days from the day of the sale. Bidders accept that the Auctioneer will not be responsible or liable for any costs, expenses or damages incurred by a lot or its return including, but not limited to, loss of any kind or profit whatsoever.

Any payment via accepted online payment processors will also be subject to a 3% surcharge but may vary depending on the individual processor.

24. The Auctioneer will not be liable for any lots left for more than seven (7) working days after the date of sale. The Auctioneer reserves the right to relist, re-sell or charge storage for any such lots. Buyers shall not be entitled to remove lots from the auction room during the course of the auction.
